

CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Meetings are free and open to all families and providers that support Black children with disabilities. No need to RSVP.

Join a network of parents, caregivers, and providers of Black neurodivergent and physically disabled children*. Our mission is to hold space and provide culturally sensitive information for families and providers, and to increase advocacy and decrease disparities for Black children.

Virtual Meeting Dates:

2022

September 28
October 26
November 9
December 14

2023

January 25
February 22
March 22
April 26
May 24
June 28

All meetings are held on Wednesdays once a month from 6:00-8:00 p.m. PST via Zoom:

Join Zoom Meeting

<https://ucdavishealth.zoom.us/j/926742042?pwd=ZFdHUlQ4cWxnbUkxdUQ1UTdkWEhEUT09>

Meeting ID: 926 742 042
Passcode: Sankofa
Dial In: +1 669 900 6833

*In recognition and support of our disabled self-advocacy community Sankofa has chosen to use disability-first language.

This group is cosponsored by the Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities and the Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Research Center's Clinical Translational Core at the MIND Institute.

For more information about Sankofa:
<https://sankofagroup.herokuapp.com>
or contact:
bjcshaw@ucdavis.edu